

Green Onions

The diagram illustrates a four-string fretboard layout with the following components:

- String Labels: The strings are labeled from top to bottom as T (Treble), A (Alto), B (Bass), and B (Bass).
- Fret Numbers: Fret numbers 0, 3, and 5 are indicated on the strings.
- String Correspondence:
  - The top line (T) corresponds to the A string.
  - The second line (A) is the D string.
  - The third line (B) is the D string.
  - The bottom line (B) corresponds to the ceiling string.
- Diagram Details:
  - The fretboard is divided into four measures by vertical bar lines.
  - Each measure shows the fret numbers for the four strings.
  - Arrows point from the string labels to the corresponding lines on the fretboard.
